

U Visas

1. U visas are temporary visas for victims (direct or indirect victims, or witnesses, and depending on criteria) of qualifying criminal activity. The victim should also:
  - (a) Possess credible and reliable information establishing that (s)he has knowledge of the details concerning the qualifying criminal activity which the U visa is based on; and
  - (b) Have been, is being and/or is likely to be helpful to a certifying agency in the investigation or prosecution of the qualifying criminal activity; and
  - (c) The qualifying criminal activity: (i) occurred in the U.S. or U.S. possession, or U.S. territories; or (ii) violated a U.S. federal law that provides for extraterritorial jurisdiction.
2. U visa holders are eligible for employment authorization.
3. U visa status allow the visa holders to eventually apply for U.S. permanent residence status or green card.
4. Family members and non-spouse partner (regardless of gender) of temporary visa holders may join them in the U.S., depending on the criteria.
